

Supervisor's name and surname	Max number of students admitted to the seminar	Topic of the seminar	Admission rules dr hab. Marcin Anholcer, prof. UEP	6	Optimization in Finance (Integer Programming, Combinatorial Optimization, Optimization on Graphs and Networks, Preference Analysis)	Contact the thesis supervisor via email or in person in order to get a consent to participate in his/her seminar dr Marcin Bartkowiak	4	Quantitative finance. Areas of research in the seminar: derivatives pricing, hedging strategies, algorithmic trading, alternative risk transfer, structured products, asset pricing models, derivatives on nonfinancial assets	Interest in the areas of research of the MA seminar Contact the thesis supervisor via email or in person in order to get a consent to participate in his/her seminar dr hab. Helena Gaspars-Wieloch, prof. UEP	2	Operations research, multi-criteria decision making, decision making under certainty and uncertainty	Contact the thesis supervisor via email or in person in order to get a consent to participate in his/her seminar dr hab. Paweł Kliber, prof. UEP	2	Mathematical and statistical methods in markets modeling	Interview dr hab. Piotr Manikowski, prof. UEP	6	Financial aspects of insurance activity, Insurance markets, Property insurance, Social insurance	Contact the thesis supervisor via email or in person in order to get a consent to participate in his/her seminar, order of applications, interest in the topic dr hab. Katarzyna Perez, prof. UEP	6	Financial markets and investments, portfolio management. Classical and modern approach	Interest in the topic, B2 in English, grades average above 4,0, contact the thesis supervisor via email or in person in order to get a consent to participate in his/her seminar dr hab. Justyna Rój, prof. UEP	4	Empirical finance of corporation. Financial management in healthcare	Contact the thesis supervisor via email in order to get a consent to participate in her seminar – justyna.roj@ue.poznan.pl