APPLICATION FOR A PLACE IN A HALL OF RESIDENCE

RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS AND PhD STUDENTS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Dear Student and PhD Students, before you start completing the Application for a place in a Hall of Residence, get acquainted with the information available online on the University's website.

The Application for a place in a Hall of Residence (Wnioskowanie o akademik) is to be submitted through the USOSweb system available at <http://usosweb.ue.poznan.pl>

You can apply for a place in a hall of residence (HoR) if you are a student or PhD student of PUEB. Priority is given to students and PhD student whose daily commuting would make studying difficult or impossible.

You can track the status of your application in USOSweb, and you will receive notification of any change to your university e-mail address (@ue.poznan.pl).

Remember to check your university electronic mailbox regularly during the application period for a place in a hall of residence.

Remember to check the status of your application, as — in case of irregularities in your application (e.g., mistakes in filling in the application, etc.) — the coordinator may revoke it for correction, which will require immediate action on your side.

A HoR place is granted for the period from 1 September to 30 June.

Remember that if the system notifies you that you have been allocated a place, you must confirm in the USOSweb system your intention to be accommodated in a HoR. Failure to do so means that you have resigned from a place in a hall of residence.

Accommodation in a hall of residence is available for the period from 1 September to 8 October, after informing the administration of Hall of Residence about the date of arrival. You will receive your contract once you have been accommodated.

Remember that if – due to important reasons (internships, placements) – you intend to be accommodated after 8 October, you must extend the validity of your referral in the USOSweb system, as your allocation will be forfeited once the validity expires. Despite the extension of the referral deadline, HoR payments will be charged from 1 October.

Remember that in case of no-show at the hall of residence by 8 October and not extending the validity of your referral, your place will be forfeited.

Upon signing in to the USOSweb system, select the tab COMMON SECTION.
