SUBMISSION FORM ■

SUBMISSIONS DUE: MARCH 30TH
DECISIONS: APRIL 17TH
REGISTRATION: MAY 30TH

The Summer Workshop on Macroeconomics and Finance is a cyclical event that brings together Polish economists affiliated with domestic and foreign institutions. The program features a selection of papers in macroeconomics, theory, and applied economics. Each presenter has sufficient time for a thorough presentation and a lively discussion. We invite both theoretical and applied work, as both will enjoy ample room for comments and suggestions. We encourage submissions in all areas of economics research, with a particular focus on macroeconomics and finance. Of special interest are studies on business and financial cycles, monetary economics, interactions between finance and macroeconomics, labor market economics, the theory and practice of central banking, and economic growth. However, we also welcome submissions in other fields of economics.

The event. We meet for the 13h time. The event is be organized in partnership between SGH Warsaw School of Economics and FAME|GRAPE. The conference language is English.

Organizational details. The submission deadline is March 30th, 2025. Strong preference will be given to completed articles, but extended abstracts are also invited. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by April 17th, 2025. The conference fee for presenters is set at 250 USD (100 USD for PhD students).

Scientific Committee. Michał Brzoza-Brzezina (SGH), Anna Cieślak (Duke University), Agnieszka Chłoń-Domińczak (SGH), Marcin Kacperczyk (Imperial College London), Paweł Kopiec (SGH), Krzysztof Makarski (SGH & GRAPE), Jacek Suda (SGH) and Piotr Żoch (University of Warsaw & GRAPE).

We hope to see you in Warsaw!

This year the Workshop will be organized in honor of its founder Professor Jan Werner on the occasion of his 70th birthday.
