

The list of documents:

- 1) An admission application addressed to the Director of the Doctoral School
- 2) Personal questionnaire
- 3) A scan of a copy of the diploma confirming obtaining a master's degree or equivalent
- 4) The concept of a doctoral dissertation in English according to the attached template.
The concept of a doctoral dissertation must be accepted by a potential academic supervisor from the PUEB
- 5) the list of the candidate's research and teaching achievements
- 6) the cover letter (up to 450 words), including information about candidate's professional experiences and candidate's activities concerning designing PhD project, and indicating the potential doctoral dissertation supervisor
- 7) opinions (at least 1) about the candidate's predispositions and abilities written by the MA thesis supervisor, or by another researcher employed by a university or a scientific research institution
- 8) documents certifying the knowledge of English, i.e.:
 - a) a copy of a certificate of the candidate's command of English at a level not lower than B2, or
 - b) a university diploma certifying the knowledge of English at a level not lower than B2, or
 - c) document certifying the knowledge of English at a level not lower than B2 issued by PUEB (after a test);
- 9) a certificate of the candidate's change of surname (for candidates with a diploma with a different surname than their current one);
- 10) a coloured photograph in the digital form, sized 20 x 25 mm, in compliance with the requirements for passport photographs – resolution 300.pdi, in a jpg or tif format
- 11) a publication in a journal from the current (on the day of the publication) list of scientific journals and materials from international conferences issued by the minister responsible for science and higher education, with the assigned score
- 12) a publication in a journal not included in the current list issued by the minister responsible for science and higher education
- 13) for participation in a national conference, delivering a paper or presenting a poster
- 14) for participation in an international conference, delivering a paper or presenting a poster
- 15) for certified participation in an organization of an international scientific conference
- 16) evaluation of the candidate's other achievements in research and teaching (e.g. confirmed involvement in the activity of a science club or active promotion of science)

Candidates who have completed their studies outside Poland need to provide the following documents:

a recognition statement issued by the Narodowa Agencja Wymiany Akademickiej (NAWA), confirming that a candidate's diploma gives the right to access education at the doctoral school in Poland gives the right to submit the application to a doctoral school in Poland