Languages of instruction

The languages of instruction at UP are Spanish and English. Most of the courses during the semester at Universidad del Pacífico are taught in Spanish; however, courses taught fully in English are included in the academic offer each semester. Students can take courses in English only, Spanish only, or both according to their proficiency and preferences.

LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS:

For courses taught in Spanish, non-native-speaking students are required to submit a B2 certificate of proficiency in Spanish as a minimum (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages). For Finance and Economics courses, the minimum level required is C1.

For courses taught in English, non-native English-speaking students are required to submit a B2 certificate of proficiency in English as a minimum for undergraduate courses and C1 for graduate courses.

In both cases, the certificate should not overpass two years from the date of issue.

If the student plans to take graduate-level courses, it is mandatory to prove a C1 level of proficiency in Spanish. These courses are offered in modules fully in Spanish. Classes are also offered on weekends.

INTENSIVE SPANISH LANGUAGE COURSES:

For an additional fee, Elementary, Intermediate, and Advanced Level Spanish Courses for exchange students are available at our Language Center. These courses are offered starting 3 weeks before the beginning of the semester. After being nominated, students will receive information about the possibility of taking these courses and conditions.

Course information

Universidad del Pacifico offers courses in the following fields: Accounting, Business Administration, Marketing, International Business, Business Engineering, Information Engineering, Economics, Finance, and Law. Some courses have prerequisites that must be met before students can enroll in them. To take courses from the Economics or Finance academic departments, students must prove a C1 level proficiency in the language of instruction, Spanish or English.

The final list of courses will be available one or two weeks before the semester starts.

Undergraduate program study plans and course descriptions will be available on our website: <https://incoming.up.edu.pe>

Academic credits and grading system

A full-time study program consists of 200 to 246 credits. Most courses are worth 4 credits. Each UP credit is equivalent to 14 hours (4 hours of classes per week during 14 weeks of classes). Therefore, a 4-credit course represents 56 hours of classes during one semester.

The workload per semester averages about 16 to 20 credits. The minimum suggested workload for an exchange student is 12 credits.

Grading System: In the Peruvian higher education system, grades go from 0 to 20, 20 being the highest grade and 11 the minimum passing grade.

GRADE	DEFINITION
20	Outstanding Cum Laude
18-19	Outstanding
16-17	Very Good
14-15	Good
11-13	Pass

Our professors are recognized academic, responsible leaders in their respective fields, committed to advancing excellence in teaching and research. The program includes lectures, visits to multinational corporations based in Peru, and NGOs. The participants will be integrated into the Peruvian culture through dance, cuisine, and language. It is necessary to have at least 10 participants enrolled in the program. Likewise, the programs may be organized at any time of the year to accommodate visitors' needs.
