- * Please note that the University will refund the full amount that we received in Polish zlotys.
- * The amount of money transferred in other currencies will depend on the current exchange rates and bank fees.
- * Therefore, the amount that you will receive may be different from the amount that you originally transferred.

- * The refund should be transferred to the same person who paid the tuition fees. If you wish your refund to be sent to someone else, the person who paid your fees should email us and confirm that they agree to the change.
