

HR Business Partner Development Program

Are you looking to take your career to the next level? At Procter & Gamble, we are proud to say that we develop talents almost exclusively from within. This means we are not just offering you your first job out of university; we are hiring you with the expectation you will grow into one of our future leaders - maybe even our next CEO.

With us you will:

- Work with HR Business Partners on HR projects around engagement, retention, learning & development, and employee communication
- Support talent acquisition team in recruitment strategy creation & campus activities
- Run independently truly meaningful HR projects, cooperating with business partners from Sales, Brand Management, F&A
- Develop yourself via leadership, feedbacks, on-the-job and classroom trainings, coaching, and mentoring provided by your manager and colleagues

You can expect:

- Traineeship for 6 months on employment contract
- Flexibility in working hours (minimum 30 hours/week) and location (hybrid working mode)
- Continuous development including the best training programs on each stage of your career
- Multicultural, dynamic environment
- Attractive salary (9300 PLN gross/month for full working time) and benefits (i.e. private medical care, lunch pass, multisport card)
- Access to P&G Vibrant Living (Wellbeing) Programs

Job Qualifications:

- Either a student of 3rd, 4th or 5th year or fresh alumni of BA or MA studies from Polish University preferably in the area of Business Management, Economy, Psychology
- Proficient in English and Polish language
- An individual with strong leadership and skills
- Very strong in communication, collaboration and social skills
- Strategic-oriented with operational approach and ability to work within diverse organizations and teams
- An individual with initial HR experience gathered via i.e., work in student organizations, internships/or strong interest in the area

APPLY NOW: <https://www.pgcareers.com/pl/en/job/R000090972/HR-Business-Partner-Development-Program>