

The list of documents:

1. An admission application addressed to the Director of the Doctoral School
2. Personal questionnaire
3. a diploma or a copy of a diploma issued by a university, certifying that the candidate has obtained the MA or an equivalent title, with the reservation mentioned in point 3 and § 5 point 1, for inspection purposes in the recruitment procedure. On the basis of this document, the University shall prepare an authenticated copy, and the diploma or copy shall be returned;
4. the doctoral dissertation concept in Polish or English, following the scheme included, with a maximum number of words for each part specified in this scheme (the number of words is determined based on the MS Word report). The potential supervisor from PUEB must approve the dissertation concept by having him sign the concept;
5. a list of published scientific articles, other activities of a scientific nature, and activities promoting science;
6. the motivation letter (up to 450 words), including information about the candidate's professional experiences and candidate's activities concerning designing PhD project, and indicating the potential doctoral dissertation supervisor;
7. at least one written opinion about the candidate's predispositions and abilities written by the MA thesis supervisor or by another researcher employed by a university or a scientific research institution;
8. A document confirming knowledge of English, namely:
 - a copy of the language certificate confirming knowledge of English at a level of at least B2 or
 - a university diploma confirming the knowledge of English at a level of at least B2 or
 - a document confirming the knowledge of English at the B2 level issued by the PUEB after the language test
9. A document confirming a change of the candidate's name (it only applies to applicants with a diploma issued in a name another than the current one)

Candidates who have completed their studies outside Poland need to provide the following documents: a recognition statement issued by the Narodowa Agencja Wymiany Akademickiej (NAWA), confirming that a candidate's diploma gives the right to access education at the doctoral school in Poland gives the right to submit the application to a doctoral school in Poland. If the documents certifying the completion of studies abroad are in a language other than Polish or English, the candidate is additionally obliged to submit their translation into Polish or English.